

Concert Tour Strasbourg / France

One of the European capitals and an UNESCO World heritage surrounded by Alsatian way of life - this means European history combined with stylish savoir vivre!

Representative program:

Day 1: Arrival during the day and meeting with the local guide. First walk through the centre with a visit of the Cathedral and the quarter Petite France, where a typical Alsatian dinner is waiting for the music group. Drive back to the hotel and overnight.

Day 2: Drive to Molsheim (around 25 km) to a vineyard: Drive in a carriage through the vineyards and afterwards drive to Avolsheim with the Dompeter Church, the oldest church in the Alsace. As an aperitif will be offered a Morio Muscat Wine under an old lime tree and will be followed by some other kinds of wine from this vintage. Of course, you are free to sing to this excellent wine....

Drive to lunch with starter as a buffet and the Alsatian speciality "Baeckeoffe", different kinds of vegetables and meat from the oven. Drive along the Alsatian Wine Street along the villages of Obernai, Barr, Kintzheim, Riquewihr (with walk in the centre) and Kaysersberg. On the way, wine degustation and concert in one of the wine villages. Drive back to Strasbourg, on the way, dinner at the source of the sauerkraut with Alsatian sauerkraut specialities. Overnight.

Day 3: Trip to Colmar in the Vosges mountains. Church service or organization of a concert in a village of the Münster Valley. Lunch and afterwards drive to Colmar with guided walk in the Old Town. In the Museum Unterlinden you can see the famous Isenheim Altar from Mathias Grünewald. Departure.
